

ANTEATER

The band was formed at the beginning of 2018 and the following year it took first place in music competitions the Muse and Strahov Open Air Band Contest. In the same year, it also reached the finals of the international Planetrox competition and obtained its participation at the biggest festival in Czech Republic - Rock for People.

The band started a collaboration with producer Thom Fröde (Imodium, Walkmanz) during 2021 and in the autumn of the same year released the EP Other Worlds very well received both by critics and fans. In the spring of 2022, Anteater played several shows across the UK under the patronage of IndigoBravo promotions. This successful tour was the impuls to begin with preparations of a new album, which is planned to be released in winter 2023.

By the end of this year, the band will perform concerts in London, Brighton, Shrewsbury, Manchester, York, as well as concerts in Germany and the Czech Republic.
